Organisation of the teaching process in the School A. Placement test and choice of level

- 1. [Checking level]. In order to commence study at the School, the User needs to complete a free test of language level, which enables the placement of the User at the optimal level. The Placement Test may be found at the address www.blc4u.com.

2 [Viewing of test result]. The purpose of the Placement Test is to show the User's language level, so that the User may purchase the appropriate level of language course.

B. Study in the School

1. [Language level] Study in the School is available at six language levels: basic, elementary, lower-intermediate, pre-intermediate, intermediate, higher-intermediate.

Each of these levels consists of six months of study at the particular language level.

2. [Study level] Each language level is divided into six sub-level. One sub-level of study consists of a minimum of 5 sections such as: reading, writing, conversation, listening comprehension and grammar.

3. [Proceeding to next level of study] Study at each level begins with the first sub-level. Entry to successive sub-levels is possible only when the User has achieved a minimum of 50% of the points for each section of a given sub-level. In the event of a User achieving less than 50% for a given sub-level, they must repeat the exercises until such a time as they achieve a minimum of 50% of the available points.

4. [Progress tests] Each level finishes with a progress test. Access to the next level is possible only when a Student achieves a minimum of 50% of the available points from a progress test.

5 [Access to the school's resources] Access to the school's resources is possible in accordance with the following table.

a. 1 sub-level (no more than 30 days).

b. ½ level (no more than 90 days).

c. 1 level (no more than 180 days).

d. Several levels (no more than the number of levels accumulated across 180 days).

In the event of a User not completing a given level of study in the above time, access to resources of the School may be blocked. The unblocking of access is possible following payment in accordance with the Price List.

C. Written work. Various sub-levels of study include the requirement of the User to complete a written assignment via the communication channel of the Platform. The written work is of a practical nature, applying the material covered in the course by the Student and is not assessed by the School – it is automatically recognised as marked.

D. Conversation Payment for the use of the Platform does not include "live" conversation with a teacher. A Student may request a conversation with a teacher at additional cost according to the Platform's Price List (available at the address www.blc4u.com).

E. Examination-guarantee clause for Students of the Platform www.blc4u.com.

1. [Subject of guarantee] The school guarantees Users who have completed the 6 levels on the Platform that they will be able to complete an international examination at B1 level according to the European Language Levels (e.g. TELC, Cambridge, PEARSON, TRINITY etc.) at an available examination centre worldwide.

2. [Conditions of guarantee] In order to qualify for the above guarantee, the User must comply with the following requirements:

a. completion of 6 levels on the Platform,

b. enter for B1 level examination within 3 months of completion of the course on the Platform, c. fail to pass the examination above.

3 [Provision of guarantee] A User who fulfils the requirements of the above point will receive from the School a refund of the costs of the examination in question that they took. The conditions of receiving the refund are that they send to the School the following documents:

a. the original invoice for the B1 examination taken by the Student,

b. a document confirming the fact that they failed the examination,
